

Registration Terms and Conditions Executive Master of Business Administration (EMBA)

- Business Transformation Specialization
- Sustainable Business Specialization

Thank you for considering Business School Lausanne for your studies. This document will provide you with important information about starting a BSL study program, including:

- Admission requirements and process
- Tuition fee structure and financial conditions
- Visa process

Deadlines & Entry Date

Completed applications are reviewed as they are received. Therefore, it is in your interest to apply early.

Application Deadlines

Business School Lausanne accepts applications from qualified candidates throughout the year.

Start Dates

The ideal entry date is either September, January, or February, but can be determined by BSL and the candidate.

When to apply?

You should submit your application as soon as you have decided that BSL is the right business school for you. We do our best to process applications until the program start date, but we cannot guarantee a place for anyone applying less than 30 days before the start of a BSL program.

VISA Advisory

It takes 8-12 weeks to receive a visa to study in Switzerland. If you require a visa and want to be sure to start at BSL for a specific term, you should send in your application no later than the International Deadline to the program's start date in September, November, February, or May. If we receive your application less than 10 weeks before the program starts, your ability to start will depend on whether or not your visa arrives in time.

Admission Requirements

BSL admission requirements for the EMBA programs are:

- EITHER a bachelor's or a master's degree in business and one to three years of managerial experience (defined as having managed people or a project).
- OR a bachelor's or a master's degree in a field different than business and three years of managerial experience (defined as having managed people or a project). Candidates with such degrees in fields other than business are eligible to apply but must complete BSL's prerequisite courses.
- OR significant managerial experience. Managers with careers focused exclusively on one area of business are eligible to apply but must complete BSL's prerequisite courses.
- Fluency in English equivalent to IELTS 6.5 or TOEFL level of 90 points.

Admission Process

The BSL Admissions Committee will only review complete applications. A complete application file must include the following documents:

- Application form duly filled and signed
- Application Fee of CHF 120.-
- Official Transcripts and copy of the College/University degree (Foreign Official Transcripts must be certified by a legal authority such as a public notary, with translation when necessary)
- An up-to-date Curriculum Vitae/resume (overview of studies, relevant working experience and activities)
- A convincing motivation letter/essay highlighting:
 - your perspective on your professional future
 - reasons why you wish to study business
 - why you believe BSL is the right school for you
- Two reference letters from current or previous employers
- Two identical passport photographs
- A copy of your passport or identity card

After the Admissions Committee has reviewed your application file, you will be invited for an interview conducted at BSL, by Zoom, or by telephone for those not in Switzerland by the Program Director. The applicants will receive a final response within one week.

Non-standard circumstances

Procedure for late payments and non-finalized study visa/permit formalities:

- BSL reserves the right to suspend a student from attending classes if the invoice payment has yet to be made by the payment deadline.
- Students may also be suspended from attending classes if they have yet to finalize administrative matters about the study visa or permit application process.
- BSL reserves the right to expel a student from the program and the school for academic/disciplinary reasons by the written academic regulations or due to unpaid fees.
- Balances which remain outstanding beyond the deadline for payment may be subject to a 1% monthly interest charge.
- The final transcript and the diploma will only be released upon fully settling the student's account.

Cancellation Procedure:

Please note that the authorities in charge of releasing visas need to inform BSL about the progress of the visa request. Refusal letters are sent directly by the Swiss authorities only to the visa applicants.

If the request for a study visa is refused, BSL will refund all fees except the administrative fees on the condition that BSL is informed in writing by the student, with official proof of the visa refusal, within 10 days of receipt of the refusal letter. If BSL is not informed about the visa refusal within the 10-day timeframe and the term has started, BSL is entitled to keep the payment for the first two terms of studies.

Deferral Policy

Candidates apply for a given intake. The selected intake is final once the Candidate has been admitted into the program. It cannot be deferred to another term for reasons other than related to Visa issuance.

If students cannot join the intake they have applied for and have been admitted to, there will be no refund, and BSL is entitled to keep the payment for the first two terms of studies.

Leaving the program – Financial implications, communication to the authorities:

- If a student wishes to withdraw from the program, BSL must be notified in writing as soon as possible. The term in which a notice is given and the following term remain due by the student and will be invoiced accordingly.
- If a student is expelled from the school for academic/disciplinary reasons following the written academic regulations or due to unpaid fees, the fees are payable as indicated. The term in which a notice is given and the following term remain due by the student and will be invoiced accordingly. Students may also be suspended or expelled from attending classes if they have not finalized administrative matters concerning the study visa or permit application process.
- Once a student who obtained a residency permit for studies purposes interrupts, withdraws, or is expelled from Business School Lausanne, BSL must inform the local cantonal authorities, and the residency permit will be canceled.

Study plans and amendments to the study plan

The individual study plan will be shared with the Student after complete enrollment at the start of the program.

- Amendments to the study plan due to transfer credit have to be discussed with the Deputy Academic Director, who will confirm any new version of the study plan. Transfer credits duly justified by originals or certified copies of transcripts can only be discussed during the first term of studies.
- BSL's administration does not recognize oral agreements regarding the courses students are attending or not attending.

- BSL invoices according to the study plan. Consequently, when the study plan changes, the corresponding tuition fees will be invoiced or credited if courses have been added or removed. Invoices for such changes are payable as indicated by BSL.
- BSL reserves the right to modify the program content, structure, and/or format and update your study plan accordingly at any point in your program.

Entering Switzerland on a foreign passport for study purposes

BSL Applicants who seek to enter Switzerland on a passport for any of the countries mentioned below must have a STUDY VISA issued by a Swiss Embassy or Consulate before entering Switzerland to study:

Europe: Turkey and Eastern Countries except Bulgaria, Estonia, Latvia, Lithuania, Poland, Czech Republic, Romania and Slovenia.

Africa: All Countries

Asia: All Countries, except for students from Brunei, Japan, Malaysia and Singapore

Oceania: All Countries, except for students from New Zealand

Americas: All Countries

Notes on the above list

- This list may be changed at any time. It is advisable to check with the Swiss Embassy or Consulate for the latest update.
- Applicants from all countries require a STUDY PERMIT to study in Switzerland. The STUDY PERMIT is applied upon arrival in Lausanne.
- The applicant cannot be accompanied by other members of their family
- A TOURIST VISA does NOT satisfy the above requirements or authorize a student with a foreign passport to study in Switzerland.
- The Swiss authorities may require up to three months to process a study visa application from the date such application is submitted to the Swiss Embassy/Consulate.

BSL prepares all study visas and permit applications for its students. However, Embassies and Consulates provide the information on the process to the student, not BSL. Therefore, students are expected to keep BSL informed about the progress of their visa applications.
